Last but not the least, Madam Principal, Dr. Anjana Kumar wished the students and shared her words of wisdom. The celebration managed to impart a vital lesson and delight to all the children.

Christmas

The month of December brings a lot of warmth, hope and glad tidings. To spread the message of love and good cheer, the little toddlers of RBMHS presented a spectacular assembly on the occasion of Christmas. The programme commenced with a joyful dance and melodious carols by the primary students. The school wore a festive look with stars, bells, snowman, streamers and a beautifully decorated Christmas tree which made the essence of Christmas come alive. The boundless joy of celebrating the festival was amply visible on the faces of the children especially when Santa Claus himself moved around distributing sweets to them.

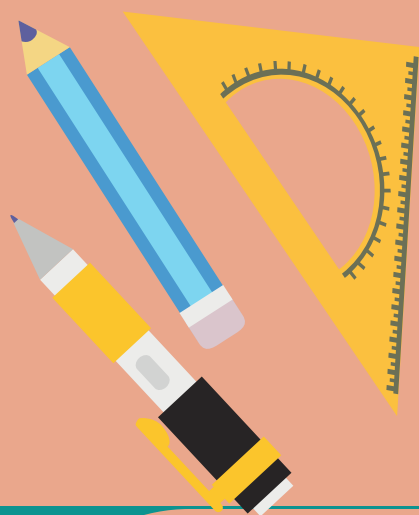

Gandhi Jayanti

"If you want real peace in the world start with children"

Keeping the Gandhian quote in mind, RBMHS celebrated Gandhi Jayanti from 29th September to 2nd October. The young Birlites of the primary section paid homage to the Father of the Nation by putting their creative hats on and making charkhas, lathis and slippers with play dough. The middle school and the higher school students made posters, stamps and origami models to convey their utmost devotion to Gandhi Ji. The Unfair Judgement

Someone said that people judge
And it was even felt, way too much.
When a girl wears a short dress,
Her family, her neighbours and even the friends
Keep noding her, as if she has done a crime
It's her choice to keep it simple and fine!
When you say that "Men don't cry"
It's the time when you should give a try
Try to not laugh when one does,
Try to never misjudge
They have a heart similar to us
And cry when it's broken!
When you comment rather than giving a compliment
On how beautiful one looks after make-up,
Asks her to apply lesser than what she does..
When you say that Kitchen is her only place
But she makes you realise that it's just a new space
Making you believe that this not what she was born for
She is a women, and this is what she is proud of!
When you ask him to be fanatic and good looking,
Just look at yourself and think,
Should this demand even exist?
One just needs to humble and pure
Because this is what matters after all.
People judge as they have no time to understand
But keeping this attitude, would never help
As when you judge another,
It does not define them, but YOU
